Camp Life Information for Parents & Campers

Drop Off/ Pick Up

- Camp begins promptly at 9 a.m. Please drop off students at Door #1.
- Parents need to enter the building and pick up their children at Door #1 by 11 a.m.

Attendance

Please call or email Regina Wathier at 630-782-2860/rwathier@dupage88.net in the event that an emergency or illness prevents the camper from attending camp that day.

Assistance

All children will be assigned a high school student who will serve as their helper and mentor.

Behavior Expectations

Camp is supposed to be fun, so any poor behavior (rowdy, unruly, negativity, disrespectful) will constitute parent contact and may result in dismissal without refund.

Closed Rehearsal Policy

Camp is closed to visitors.

Emergency Procedures

We will follow the emergency procedures outlined in the Willowbrook High School Handbook.

Pizza Party Friday

There will be a pizza party at 5 p.m. on Friday for campers. Cheese pizza, beverages, and cookies will be served. The cost is $3 per person. We will send order forms home the Monday of camp. If your campers cannot eat any of these foods, please send them with their own dinners.

Finding a Monologue

Students will need to obtain and memorize a 1-minute monologue. These should be age appropriate and can be from any source, including movies, children's poetry, plays, musicals, or television. You can also find great children's monologue books on Amazon or at the library. Some good sources for younger actors (ages 6-10) include Cool Characters for Kids by Janet B. Milstein, Magnificent Monologues for Kids by Chambers Stevens, Famous Fantasy Character Monologues by Rebecca Young, or My First Monologue Book by Kristen Dabrowski. Older Actors (ages 11-12) might find something in 101 Monologues for Middle School Actors by Rebecca Young; teen actors (ages 13-14) can find material in standard monologue books, as long as they select something that is age appropriate.

Thank you for supporting your child in his/her interest in the arts!
