Tickets are available at villapark-brewfest.com.

Villa Park BREWFEST is a craft beer tasting festival that showcases the talents and unique beers from area breweries. Attendees will be able to sample craft beers and ciders from more than 15 breweries.

This year's food vendors at the event include Spoon Burger, Flavor Frenzy and Hat Trick BBQ Company.

Villa Park BREWFEST is a 21 and older event. Even the designated driver ticket holders need to be at least 21 years old. No pets of any kind are allowed. Children are strictly prohibited from attending (including but not limited to babies in strollers or being carried in any sort of baby carrier).

VFW Post 2801 Auxiliary accepting entries for its youth scholarship competitions

The deadline to submit entries in the Patriot's Pen and Voice of Democracy contests is Oct. 31

The Villa Park Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Post 2801 Auxiliary is participating in the upcoming 2023-24 Patriot's Pen and Voice of Democracy youth scholarship competitions.

The Patriot's Pen essay contest is open to students in sixth, seventh and eighth grade. The Voice of Democracy contest is for high school students.

Students who enter the Patriot's Pen contest must complete an essay by writing an answer (300 to 400 words) to the 2023-24 theme: "How Are You Inspired by America?"

In the Voice of Democracy audio-essay competition, contestants will write an essay responding to the 2023-24 theme: "What Are the Greatest Attributes of Our Democracy?"

In addition to writing their response to that question, students who take part the Voice of Democracy contest will make an audio recording (3 to 5 minutes) of their essay.

Students who participate in the Patriot's Pen and Voice of Democracy contests can advance to four different levels of competition—VFW Post, VFW District, VFW State and VFW National. Students can earn scholarship funds by advancing to each level.

The first-place national award for the Patriot's Pen contest is $5,000. The grand prize in the Voice of Democracy competition is a $35,000 scholarship.

The deadline to submit entries to the VFW Post 2801 Auxiliary in both contests is Oct. 31.

For more information, or to obtain an entry form, email the post at vfwpost2801auxiliary@gmail.com. Entry forms are also available online at vfw.org. Go to the Community tab, and then click on the Youth and Education tab. From there, click on the Youth Scholarships link.

Rams face Warriors

Glenbard East's girls volleyball team played a pair of matches last week. The Rams opened the week with a 25-14, 25-7 Upstate Eight Conference win at Streamwood on Sept. 26. Senior Sophia Sommesel connected for seven kills to help the Rams to their win over the Sabres. Senior Hannah Meyer handed out 11 assists for Glenbard East, which improved to 15-9 overall and 4-1 in conference play with the win. Senior Lauren Bradley made 10 digs, while junior Grace Johnson provided five digs. Freshman Belle McDermott contributed two kills, three digs and three aces. The Rams completed the week with a 25-20, 25-12 non-conference loss to Willowbrook in Lombard on Sept. 28. Sommesel pounded 10 kills and made six digs against the Warriors. Meyer (No. 9 - above right) supplied 15 assists, while Bradley made eight digs. McDermott (No. 10 - above left) had five kills and two digs in the Sept. 28 match, which was played in front of an enthusiastic Glenbard East audience. The Rams and Warriors were tied at 19-19 in the first game. Willowbrook then won six of the next seven points to close out the opening game. The Warriors improved their overall season record to 19-0 with their win over Glenbard East. Willowbrook fell to 19-1 one day later after losing a three-game contest at Oak Park and River Forest. The Rams' schedule this week includes conference matches against Elgin and Fenton.

Rams' unbeaten streak ends

Glenbard East's boys soccer team played two matches last week. The Rams battled Streamwood to a 2-2 tie in an Upstate Eight Conference match on Sept. 27. Three days later, Glenbard East lost 3-1 to Glenbard West in a non-conference contest in Lombard. The Rams trailed the Sabres 2-0 in the first half of last week's conference match in Streamwood. Glenbard East scored a pair of goals to even the score before halftime. Senior Josue Roman of the Rams scored the goal that cut Streamwood's lead to 2-1. Junior Josh Roimicher delivered the goal that tied the score. Roman assisted Roimicher's goal. Glenbard East junior goalkeeper Cooper Woodbridge made six saves against the Sabres. The Rams' conference record stood at 2-2-2 after last week's tie in Streamwood. Glenbard East entered Saturday's match with a record of 4-0-3 in its previous seven matches. Glenbard West scored a first-half goal to take a 1-0 lead. Junior Gerardo Figueroa of the Rams scored a goal with about 29 minutes left in the second half to tie the score at 1-1. Senior Lukas Czapla assisted the goal. The Hilltoppers scored the go-ahead goal with about 19 minutes to play. They added another goal with about 10 minutes left in the match. Glenbard East senior Jonny Weltin (No. 13) earned his team's Golden Boot honor for his play in Saturday's match. The Rams' overall season record stood at 4-4-3 following their loss to Glenbard West. Glenbard East's schedule this week includes a conference contest against Fenton, along with this Saturday's conference home match against Glenbard South.

Rams roll to a 56-7 win over Elgin

Glenbard East scores seven first-half touchdowns in its homecoming game; Rams move to 5-1

The Glenbard East football team won its homecoming game in convincing fashion, crushing Elgin 56-7 in Friday night's Upstate Eight Conference contest in Lombard.

The Rams improved their overall season record to 5-1 with the victory. Elgin dropped to 1-5.

Glenbard East's season continues with tonight's conference game against Fenton (0-6) at Triton College in River Grove.

Playing in front of a large crowd on a beautiful evening, the Rams scored four first-quarter touchdowns to take an early 28-0 lead over Elgin. Glenbard East added three more touchdowns in the second quarter to extend its lead to 49-0 by halftime. That lead of at least 40 points led to a running clock throughout the second half.

"I thought our guys were sharp tonight," said Glenbard East coach John Walters after Friday's win over the Maroons. "I thought we were fast. I thought we were physical. We executed really well."

The Rams opened the game with a 63-yard touchdown drive. Senior Matt Larson delivered runs of 13 and 46 yards on the first two plays from scrimmage. After a 2-yard run by Larson, senior quarterback Blake Salvino completed the four-play drive with a 2-yard touchdown run. Senior Ryan Snell made the first of his eight extra-point kicks of the game to give the Rams a 7-0 lead with 10:16 left in the first quarter.

Larson scored Glenbard East's next touchdown on a 55-yard punt return. Senior linebacker Augustus Winkler scored the Rams' third touchdown of the night when he intercepted an Elgin pass and raced 29 yards into the end zone.

Junior Amonte Cook scored Glenbard East's fourth touchdown of the first quarter on a 22-yard run. Snell made the ensuing extra-point kick to give the Rams a 28-0 lead with 3:35 left in the opening quarter.

Senior Eric McClain of the Rams blocked an Elgin punt late in the first quarter. Senior Aaron Dotson picked up the loose ball after the block and returned it to the Maroons' 8-yard line. Moments later, in the opening seconds of the second quarter, Salvino no fired an 18-yard touchdown pass to Cook.

Larson scored Glenbard East's sixth touchdown of the night on a 63-yard run with 5:01 left in the second quarter. Junior quarterback Max Salek delivered a 43-yard touchdown run with 3:40 remaining in the second quarter. Snell tacked on the extra-point kick to raise the Rams' lead to 49-0.

Elgin scored its only touchdown of the game on a 73-yard run in the first minute of the third quarter.

Junior Valentino Heredia scored Glenbard East's eighth and final touchdown of the night on an 18-yard run in the middle of the third quarter.

The Rams became playoff-eligible with Friday's victory, which guaranteed a winning record in the 2023 regular season.

In other conference action or day, Glenbard South defeated Elgin 14-13 in South Elgin. The Rams and the Storm both entered the game with perfect 5-0 records.

Glenbard South now sits atop conference standings with a 6-0 record. Glenbard East and South 1 both hold records of 5-1.

The Rams will face Glenbard South in Lombard on Oct. 13.

Rams, Warriors and Broncos run at the Pat Savage Invitational

Several area cross-country teams competed in Saturday's Pat Savage Invitational at Niles West High School in Skokie.

The boys teams from Glenbard East and Montini Catholic competed in the event, as did the girls teams from Glenbard East, Montini Catholic and Willowbrook.

Glenbard East's boys team posted a 10th-place finish in the overall team standings of the invite, which included 43 squads.

Senior Ryan Van Dam led the Rams to their 10th-place showing by running to a ninth-place finish in the overall individual standings.

Van Dam completed Saturday's 3-mile White Division race in 15 minutes, 37.44 seconds.

Glenbard East sophomore Mason Hephner ran to a 19th-place overall finish in Saturday's invite, which included nearly 500 finishers. Hephner negotiated the course in 15 minutes, 57.57 seconds.

Van Dam and Hephner were the only two Rams to place among the boys division's top 100 finishers.

Junior Nolan Ferris of Montini finished 20th in the invite's overall individual standings. Ferris completed the Red Division race in 15 minutes, 47.79 seconds.

Junior Connor Kaefar of the Broncos posted a 97th-place finish in the individual standings with his time of 17 minutes, 27.37 seconds.

Montini wound up 26th in the event's team standings.

Rams finish 10th in the girls race

Glenbard East's girls team ran to a 10th-place finish in the overall team standings of Saturday's girls event at the Pat Savage Invitational. Willowbrook placed 19th in the girls competition, which included 43 teams. Montini Catholic's team posted a 23rd-place finish.

Junior Elena Kosorog led the Rams to their 10th-place finish by placing 40th in the invite's overall individual standings. Kosorog finished the 3-mile White Division race in 20 minutes, 24.1 seconds.

Senior Maya Reinheimer turned in a 46th-place overall finish for Glenbard East. She completed the race in 20 minutes, 27.29 seconds.

Junior Brissa Sarabia (20:50.05) contributed a 66th-place finish for the Rams. Senior Erica Long (21:18.92) landed in 82nd place. Seniors Anabelle Stevenson (21:41.16) and Sammy Kelly (21:41.77) finished 103rd and 107th, respectively. Saturday's girls competition at Niles West included nearly 450 finishers.

Ojeda leads the Warriors with a ninth-place finish

Junior Amelie Ojeda of Willowbrook sprinted to a ninth-place finish in the invite's overall standings. She completed the White Division race in 19 minutes, 13.28 seconds.

Junior Malin Meeker was the second Warrior to cross the finish line in Saturday's invite. Meeker posted a 91st-place time of 21 minutes, 26.59 seconds.

Gertz delivers a second-place showing

Sophomore Sydney Gertz of Montini Catholic produced a second-place overall finish on Saturday. Gertz ran the 3-mile Red Division girls race in 18 minutes, 45.55 seconds. Her time was five seconds behind the invite's overall individual champion—Vernon Hills senior Anna Lester (18:04.36).

Sophomore Ashlynn Lindt of the Broncos finished 14th overall, completed the Red Division race in 19 minutes, 22.04 seconds.

Warriors' undefeated season ends with a loss to the Huskies

Oak Park and River Forest beats Willowbrook in a three-game battle; Warriors fall to 19-1

The Willowbrook girls volleyball team played three road matches last week. After beating Whitney Young and Glenbard East to improve their overall season record to 19-0, the Warriors suffered their first loss of the season on Friday.

Willowbrook fell to 19-1 after Friday's three-game loss at Oak Park and River Forest High School. The Huskies defeated the Warriors 25-17, 24-26, 25-10.

The Warriors opened the week with a 25-17, 25-13 win at Whitney Young on Sept. 25. Senior Calli Kenny provided six kills, six assists and four blocks in Willowbrook's win over the Dolphins. Junior Anna Marinier supplied six kills and three digs for the Warriors, while junior Hannah Kenny contributed four kills, 15 assists and six digs. Senior Elle Bruschuk hit four kills and made five blocks. Senior Elisa Chivilo added seven digs, three assists and two aces. Junior Lily Javier and senior Eliza Ramey hit four and three kills, respectively.

Calli Kenny bashed six kills, made five digs and handed out nine assists in Willowbrook's 25-20, 25-12 win over Glenbard East in Lombard on Sept. 28. Hannah Kenny added three kills, 10 assists and nine digs. Marinier delivered three kills and six digs.

One day after beating Glenbard East, Willowbrook played a match at Oak Park and River Forest. The Huskies handed the Warriors their first loss of the season, beating Willowbrook 25-17, 24-26, 25-10.

Bruschuk delivered four kills. Javier and Ramey hit three kills each.

Calli Kenny amassed 10 kills, four blocks, 10 assists and eight digs in Friday's loss at Oak Park and River Forest. Hannah Kenny piled up eight kills, nine assists and 10 digs. Ramey had three kills and three blocks.

Chivilo made 13 digs. Senior Keri Ostrowski had eight digs.

The Warriors' schedule this week includes a West Suburban Gold Conference match at Hinsdale South, a non-conference battle at Riverside-Brookfield and this Saturday's appearance at the Elk Grove Invite.

Warriors cruise to a convincing 43-8 win over Proviso East Willowbrook builds a 43-0 halftime lead; moves to 4-2 overall with the win

The Willowbrook football team improved to 4-2 overall and 3-1 in the West Suburban Gold Conference following Saturday afternoon's 43-8 win over Proviso East in Maywood.

The Warriors scored six first-half touchdowns to take a 43-0 halftime lead. The Pirates (1-5 overall, 0-4 in the conference) scored their only touchdown of the game on a short pass with 8:30 left in the fourth quarter. Proviso East then completed a two-point conversion pass.

Willowbrook will face Oak Park and River Forest (1-5) of the West Suburban Silver Conference this Friday in Villa Park.

Willowbrook scored four touchdowns in the opening quarter of Saturday's game to take a 29-0 lead.

Proviso East drove to the Warriors' 10-yard line on its first drive of the game. That drive ended with the Pirates turning the ball over on downs at the Warriors' 15-yard line.

Willowbrook then drove 85 yards for a touchdown. Senior quarterback Arthur Palicki completed a 12-yard scoring pass to junior K.J. Rhodes to give the Warriors a 6-0 lead. Junior kicker Brandon Lopez made the extra-point kick to give Willowbrook a 7-0 lead with 5:59 left in the first quarter.

After a short Proviso East punt, Willowbrook began its next drive at the Pirates' 20-yard line. Palicki completed the drive with a 5-yard touchdown run. Lopez added the extra-point kick to push the Warriors' lead to 14-0 with 3:34 remaining in the first quarter.

Willowbrook scored its third touchdown of the game about one minute later. Moments after recovering a Proviso East fumble, the Warriors scored on a 15-yard touchdown pass from Palicki to Rhodes. Palicki then ran across the goal line to complete a two-point conversion and push Willowbrook's lead to 22-0 with 2:38 to play in the first quarter.

Junior Jovon Boyd scored the Warriors' fourth touchdown of the game on a 12-yard run with 1:20 left in the first quarter. Lopez converted the extra-point kick to push Willowbrook's lead to 29-0.

Palicki connected with junior receiver Martin Anfinson on a 15-yard touchdown pass with 8:30 to play in the second quarter. Lopez made his fourth extra-point kick of the day to give the Warriors a 36-0 lead.

An 8-yard touchdown run by senior DaeVeon Madison boosted Willowbrook's lead to 42-0 with 4:05 left in the second quarter. Lopez closed out the team's scoring for the day by making the extra-point kick.

Sectional qualifier

Willowbrook's boys golf team competed in last week's IHSA Class 3A regional at St. Andrews Golf and Country Club's No. 2 Course in West Chicago. Junior Austin Coppersmith of the Warriors earned an individual berth in this week's IHSA Plainfield North Sectional with his strong performance at the Sept. 27 regional. Coppersmith fired an 18-hole score of 78 on the par-72 layout. He is pictured after the competition. The regional's top 10 individuals who weren't members of sectional-qualifying teams advanced to the sectional as individuals. Hinsdale Central won the regional's team title. Wheaton Warrenville South placed second, while Downers Grove North finished third. Those three squads earned team berths in the Plainfield North Sectional, which was contested earlier this week at White-tall Ridge Golf Club in Yorkville. Willowbrook finished eighth in the nine-team regional's standings. Glenbard East placed seventh in the event's team competition. Senior Peter Ahern of the Rams secured an individual berth in this week's sectional. Ahern delivered an 18-hole score of 75 at the regional. All sectional competitors attempted to earn berths in the Class 3A state meet, which will take place this Friday and Saturday in Bloomington.

Warriors run to a team title in Chicago

The Willowbrook boys cross-country team won the team championship of Saturday's Solorio Sun Warrior Invitational at Marquette Park in Chicago.

The Warriors posted a team score of 39 to capture the title at the event, which featured 15 teams. Andrew High School of Tinley Park produced a score of 52 in its second-place finish.

Junior Adriano Quintero led Willowbrook to the team title by racing to a third-place finish in the individual standings. He completed the 3-mile race in 16 minutes, 39.3 seconds.

Willowbrook's trio of senior Declan Abercrombie, junior Jake Skibbie and junior Kasen Blain placed among the top 10 individual finishers at Saturday's race. Abercrombie posted a seventh-place finishing time of 16 minutes, 52.6 seconds. Skibbie (16:54.2) placed eighth, while Blain (17:04.9) finished ninth.

Junior Omar Arenas (17:36.50) ran to a 16th-place finish for the Warriors.

Broncos drop to 5-1 after losing to Providence Catholic

*Montini will play its homecoming game
this Friday*

The Montini Catholic football team suffered its first loss of the season on Friday, when it dropped a 38-7 decision at Providence Catholic in New Lenox.

The Broncos fell to 5-1 with the loss. Providence Catholic improved to 4-2.

Montini will play its homecoming game this Friday in Lombard. The Broncos will face St. Viator (3-3) of Arlington Heights. The Lions lost 25-14 to Carmel Catholic of Mundelein on Friday.

Providence Catholic scored two first-quarter touchdowns to take an early 14-0 lead over the Broncos. The Celtics extended their lead to 21-0 in the second quarter. Montini senior Alex Marre delivered a 12-yard touchdown run with about four minutes to play in the first half. Senior Cole Stumbaugh added the extra-point kick to cut the Celtics' lead to 21-7.

Marre rushed for 83 yards on 16 carries during Friday's contest. He also made four receptions for 33 yards.

Montini junior quarterback Gaetano Carbonara completed 12 of 21 pass attempts for 133 yards. He didn't throw any interceptions.

Providence Catholic kicked a field goal late in the second quarter to raise its lead to 24-7 by halftime. The Celtics pushed their lead to 31-7 with a touchdown in the middle of the third quarter.
