

Warriors open conference season with a win over Morton

Powell scores 21 points in Willowbrook's first home game of the season

Willowbrook's boys basketball team began its West Suburban Gold Conference season with Friday night's 59-50 victory over Morton in Villa Park.

The Warriors, who began their 2023-24 season by winning one of four games at Fenton's Chuck Mitchell Thanksgiving Tournament, improved their overall record to 2-3 with Friday's win over the Mustangs.

Morton led Willowbrook 14-6 at the end of the first quarter. The Warriors outscored the Mustangs 20-6 in the second quarter to take a 26-20 halftime lead. Willowbrook held a 43-32 advantage at the end of the third quarter. Morton trimmed the Warriors' lead to 46-43 in the middle of the fourth quarter. Willowbrook then scored five straight points to extend its lead to 51-43.

Sophomore Otis Powell scored a team-high 21 points for the Warriors in their victory over the Mustangs. Senior Noah Boyd provided 11 points for Willowbrook. Senior Andrew Ciesinski contributed nine points and 11 rebounds before fouling out with 4:27 to play. Senior Kenyon Rhodes supplied eight points and eight rebounds for the Warriors. Junior Jaden Royal added five points.

Powell scored an inside basket with 26.2 seconds to play to give the Warriors a 57-50 lead. Morton intentionally fouled Powell on the play. Powell went to the free-throw line and made one of two free throws to push Willowbrook's lead to 58-50. Rhodes then made one of two free throws with 23.7 seconds remaining to account for the final point of the game.

The Warriors' schedule this week includes non-conference games at Naperville Central and Montini Catholic. Willowbrook won't play its next conference game until Dec. 15, when it will battle Downers Grove South in Downers Grove. The Warriors won't play their next home game until Jan. 5, when they will meet Leyden in a conference contest.

Willowbrook's boys basketball team played its first home game of the 2023-24 season on Friday. The Warriors opened their West Suburban Gold Conference schedule with Friday's battle against Morton. Willowbrook defeated the visiting Mustangs 59-50 in Villa Park. Sophomore Otis Powell (No. 2 - top right) scored a team-leading 21 points for the Warriors in their victory. Senior Andrew Ciesinski (No. 33 - above) provided nine points and 11 rebounds for Willowbrook. Senior Kenyon Rhodes (No. 1 - left) contributed eight points for the Warriors, who improved their overall season record to 2-3 after beating the Mustangs. "Morton is never an easy win," said Willowbrook coach Chris Perkins after Friday's game. "They can bring it and pick up the intensity. We're a young team. A lot of our guys don't have a lot of varsity experience. We're learning as we grow." The Warriors won't play their next home game until Jan. 5, when they will meet Leyden in a conference battle.

Warriors post conference win over the Blazers

The Willowbrook girls basketball team opened its West Suburban Gold Conference season with last week's home games against Hinsdale South and Addison Trail.

The Warriors suffered a 51-36 loss to Hinsdale South on Nov. 28. Willowbrook then beat Addison Trail 45-30 on Saturday.

The Warriors' overall season record stood at 2-5 after Saturday's victory over the Blazers.

Hinsdale South led Willowbrook 12-6 after one quarter and 26-21 at halftime of last week's game in Villa Park. The visiting Hornets outscored the Warriors 13-1 in the third quarter to take a 39-22 lead with eight minutes to play. Willowbrook scored its only point of the third quarter on a free throw with 16.6 seconds remaining in the period.

Senior Elle Bruschuk scored a team-leading 13 points for the Warriors in last week's loss to the Hornets. Bruschuk sank all eight of her free-throw attempts during the game. Junior Kendall Medinger, who made a pair of shots from 3-point range, added 10 points for Willowbrook. Junior Ayaan Gusman contributed seven points. Senior Lillian Vish and junior Loralai McIntyre supplied four and two points, respectively.

The Warriors led Addison Trail 11-7 after one quarter of Saturday's conference game in Villa Park. Addison Trail took a 13-11 lead during the second quarter, but the Warriors, who didn't score for the first five minutes of the quarter, closed the period with a 9-2 run to grab a 20-15 halftime lead.

Willowbrook opened the third quarter with an 11-0 run to extend its lead to 31-15. The Blazers failed to score for the first six minutes of the quarter.

Senior Kalina Henry of the Warriors sank a layup as the buzzer sounded to end the third quarter. Henry's basket gave Willowbrook a 33-20 lead with eight minutes to play.

Bruschuk provided nine points during Saturday's win over the Blazers. Gusman scored eight points. Medinger, who made one shot from 3-point range, added seven points. Through seven games, Medinger has drained nine 3-point shots. She's converted at least one 3-point shot during each of Willowbrook's first seven games of the season.

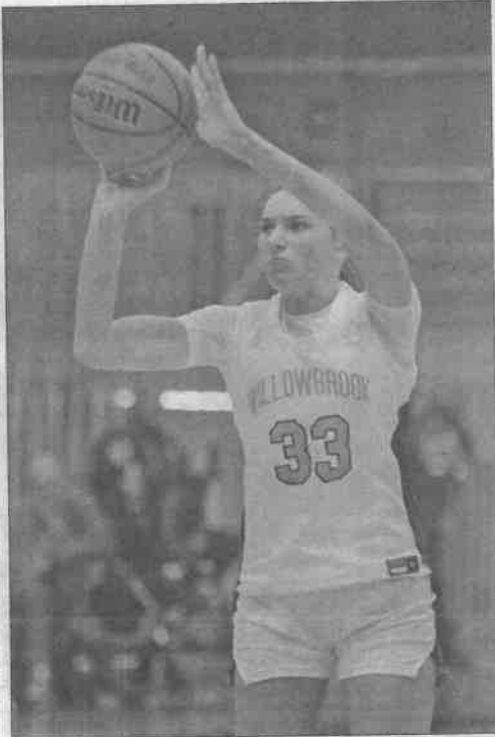

McIntyre added six points for the Warriors in Saturday's victory, while Henry and senior Tia Kelly scored four points each. Vish contributed three points, while junior Kristin Woods and sophomore Joely Maciejewski delivered two points each.

Senior Aneibi Farias Olaguez scored a team-high 12 points for Addison Trail in Saturday's game in Villa Park. Senior Cailey Salerno supplied 10 points for the Blazers.

Willowbrook's schedule this week includes conference games at Proviso East and Morton, along with tonight's non-conference home game against Lake Park.

Willowbrook junior Ayaan Gusman (No. 10 - left) contributed eight points and four assists in her team's win over the Blazers. Junior Kendall Medlinger (No. 14 - above) of the Warriors provided seven points and three assists in the conference victory. Medlinger, who made a 3-point shot during the second quarter of Saturday's contest, has drained nine shots from 3-point range this season. She made at least one 3-point attempt during each of the Warriors' first seven games of the season.
