

Fifth Third Gives Back with Cradles to Crayons to Collect Basic Essentials on 2/22

Donations of clothing, shoes, diapers, hygiene items, and books needed to support Cook, DuPage, and Lake County families.

- WHO: Cradles to Crayons will be collecting donations at Fifth Third Bank for their Give Back Collection Drive for Chicagoland families in low-income situations.
- WHAT: Cradles to Crayons, in partnership with Fifth Third Bank, are providing a one-stop donation drop-off point for those looking to give back and support Chicagoland Families. This drive-up donation event will accept new and gently used clothing, shoes, diapers, hygiene products, and books.
- WHEN: Thursday, February 22, 2024
10 a.m. - 2 p.m.
- WHERE: Cars should pull into the Fifth Third Bank parking lot located at 777 W Army Trail Blvd. Addison, IL 60101
- MORE INFO: Below are the most needed items:
- | | |
|--|------------------------------------|
| Diapers (all sizes, open packs accepted) | Children's books |
| Diaper cream, hygiene items | Winter gloves & hats |
| Winter coats (all sizes) | Pajamas: sizes 3-6 months to adult |
| New or gently used clothing (all sizes) | Shoes: sizes toddler to adult 10 |
| New socks & underwear | |

Linked here are giving guidelines for Cradles to Crayons

Cradles to Crayons provides children from birth through age 12, living in homeless or low-income situations, with the essential items they need to thrive—at home, at school and at play. We supply these items free of charge by engaging and connecting communities. Our mission is to End Clothing Insecurity.