PUBLIC SPEAKING & COMMUNICATION

This is a course designed to teach students the basic elements of the communication process, further their listening skills, and afford students the opportunity to perform several different types of speeches in front of an audience. This class will stress the research, organization, and nonverbal aspects of speech presentation. Students will also study group dynamics and have the opportunity to work in small groups to discuss current issues. This course is one semester and fulfills a graduation requirement. Course Fee $160

CONSUMER MANAGEMENT - ONLINE OPTION AVAILABLE

This course focuses on specific consumer problems that students will encounter now and as an adult. This subject relates to everyday living and helps prepare individuals for making wise purchasing decisions. Topics include: budgeting, saving/checking, investments, comparison-shopping, using credit wisely, tax preparation, insurance, advertising practices, labor relations, and various consumer protection laws. This course is one semester and fulfills a graduation requirement. Course fee $160

HEALTH - ONLINE FORMAT

This one-semester course deals with intellectual, psychological, and social dimensions relating to activities that will educate the students on how to make informed decisions affecting themselves, their family, and community well-being. This course is one semester and fulfills a graduation requirement. Course fee $160
