

A pair of Broncos win individual state titles in Champaign

Montini's David Mayora wins 150-pound championship at the Class 2A meet; Allen Woo of the Broncos claims the title in the 106-pound division

Two Montini Catholic wrestlers won state championships in the IHSA Class 2A individual state meet, which concluded on Saturday at the State Farm Center in Champaign.

Senior David Mayora of the Broncos won the state title in the meet's 150-pound weight class. Montini freshman Allen Woo captured the championship in the meet's 106-pound level.

Four other Broncos earned top-three finishes in their respective weight divisions at the Class 2A individual state meet. A total of 12 Montini wrestlers competed at the meet, which began on Thursday, Feb. 15.

Each weight division at the Class 2A individual state meet included 16 competitors.

Mayora began the meet with a first-period pin of his opponent in a first-round match. Mayora then earned a 6-1 victory in the quarterfinal round. He then delivered a 19-3 technical-fall win in the semifinal round.

Mayora edged IC Catholic Prep sophomore Brody Kelly 3-2 in the state meet's 150-pound championship match.

Mayora improved his season record to 38-1 with his four victories in Champaign.

Broncos win a regional title

Montini Catholic's girls basketball team won an IHSA Class 3A regional championship on its home court last week. The Broncos posted a pair of dominant victories at the regional. They beat Chicago's Alcott Prep High School 85-0 in a regional semifinal on Feb. 13. Two days later, Montini defeated Chicago's Illinois Tool Works (ITW) David Speer Academy 69-14 in the regional final. The Broncos improved their overall season record to 26-7 with their win in the regional final on Feb. 15. Montini advanced to this week's Glenbard South Sectional. Two wins at the sectional would propel the Broncos to a super-sectional at Concordia University in River Forest on Feb. 26. The winner of that super-sectional will earn a berth in the IHSA Class 3A state semifinals in Normal. One photo from last week's regional final shows Montini junior Nikki Kerstein (No. 3), who scored a team-high 12 points in the game.

Woo started the state meet with a first-period pin of his opponent in the opening round. Woo posted a 7-2 win in a quarterfinal match. He earned a 5-1 victory in a semifinal battle.

Woo defeated Wauconda junior Gavin Rockey 7-4 in the state meet's 106-pound championship contest.

Woo raised his season record to 21-3 with his four wins at the Class 2A individual state meet.

Montini junior Josh Vazquez finished second in the state meet's 126-pound weight class. After posting three straight wins in Champaign, Vazquez suffered a 5-3 loss to Triad senior Colby Crouch in the championship match.

Vazquez held a season record of 42-5 at the end of the state meet.

Freshman Mikey Malizzio of the Broncos placed third in the state meet's 113-pound level. Malizzio won his first two matches in Champaign before losing a 9-3 decision in the semifinal round. He then won a match in the consolation round before earning a 4-2 victory in the third-place match.

Malizzio's season record stood at 34-6 after his five matches in Champaign.

Montini sophomore Kam Luif battled to a third-place finish in the state meet's 132-pound weight class. Luif lost his first match in Champaign. He then reeled off five straight wins, including a 7-2 victory in the third-place contest.

Luif's season record stood at 38-8 after his third-place finish at the individual state meet.

Senior Harrison Konder of the Broncos placed third in the state meet's 157-pound division. Konder won his first match in Champaign before losing his next contest. Konder then won four straight matches. He scored a 5-0 win in the third-place contest to move his season record to 16-3.

The Broncos' season did not end in Champaign. Earlier this week, Montini wrestled at the Class 2A dual-team sectional at Wauconda High School. Two teams from that sectional advanced to the IHSA dual-team state meet, which takes place this Friday and Saturday in Bloomington.

Binnahfooz wrestles in the Class 3A state meet

Glenbard East senior Waleed Binnahfooz competed in the IHSA Class 3A individual state meet's 106-pound weight level in Champaign. Binnahfooz began the meet with a loss in the opening round. He then suffered a loss in the consolation round.

Binnahfooz completed his senior season with a 38-11 record.

Two Blazers compete at the Class 3A state meet in Champaign

Addison Trail senior Damian Valdez finished sixth in the Class 3A individual state meet's 132-pound weight class. Valdez won his first two matches at the state meet in Champaign. He then lost his next three matches. York senior Zach Parisi pinned Valdez in the second period of the fifth-place match.

Valdez finished the season with a 34-13 record.

Senior Martin Duarte of the Blazers competed in the Class 3A state meet's 157-pound level. Duarte lost both of his matches in Champaign. He completed the season with a record of 36-10.

Rams close out their regular season with a loss

Nee scores team-high 17 points in a conference loss to Bartlett

The Glenbard East boys basketball team concluded its regular season with last week's 70-59 Upstate Eight Conference loss to Bartlett in Lombard.

The Rams finished their regular season with an overall record of 14-17 and a conference mark of 12-6.

Bartlett led Glenbard East 17-9 after one quarter of the Feb. 13 contest in Lombard. The Rams took a brief 23-22 lead when sophomore Michael Nee sank a 3-point shot with about 2:15 left in the second quarter. Bartlett closed the quarter with a 7-2 run to take a 29-25 halftime lead.

The Hawks extended their lead 43-

30 in the third quarter, but Glenbard East delivered a 10-2 run to close the quarter to trim Bartlett's lead to 45-40 with eight minutes to play. Senior Ari Pierson of the Rams finished the quarter with a three-point play to cut the Hawks' lead to five points.

Bartlett held a 62-51 lead with less than one minute left in the game. Nee made a pair of 3-point shots in the closing 35 seconds. The second of those 3-point baskets reduced the Hawks' lead to 64-57 with 24 seconds to play.

Bartlett made six free throws in the game's final 20 seconds.

Nee, who connected on four

3-point shots and sank all five of his free-throw attempts during the game, scored a team-leading 17 points for the Rams. Sophomore Danny Snyder, who made two 3-point shots, contributed 14 points for Glenbard East. Senior Aleks Jajic provided 13 points. Junior Devin Kraft and Pierson added nine and six points, respectively.

The Rams opened IHSA Class 4A post-season action by facing Wheaton North in one of this week's semifinal games at the Glenbard North Regional. The winner of that contest will face Glenbard North or Addison Trail in Friday's regional final.

Campbell earns top-five finish at IHSA state meet

Junior standout ties for fifth in floor exercises to earn Willowbrook program's first top-five finish at state meet in 29 years

Junior Naomi Campbell of the Willowbrook girls gymnastics team finished the season by earning a pair of top-10 finishes at the IHSA state meet.

Campbell qualified for the state meet in two events—the balance beam and floor exercises. She also qualified for the all-around competition at the state meet, which took place Friday and Saturday at Palatine High School.

The top 10 finishers, plus ties, in each event of Friday's preliminaries advanced to Saturday's finals. Campbell's performance on the balance beam during Friday's action received a score of 9.2, which placed her in a tie for seventh among the 32 gymnasts competing in that event.

Campbell's routine in floor exercises on Friday earned a score of 9.3, which produced a tie for eighth in that event. There were 34 gymnasts who competed in floor exercises during Friday's preliminaries.

Campbell finished 24th in the state meet's all-around standings with her score of 35.1. That total included her scores on the balance beam and in floor exercises, along with her scores of 8.75 on the vault and 7.85 on the uneven bars during Friday's competition. A total of 33 gymnasts took part in the state meet's all-around competition.

In Saturday's finals, Campbell first competed on the balance beam. She had one fall during her routine and received a 10th-place score of 8.35 for her performance.

About 20 minutes later, Campbell delivered a solid routine in floor exercises that received a score of 9.375. She earned a tie for fifth with that score. She also secured a medal and a spot on the podium during the awards ceremony. The top five finishers, plus ties, in each event at the state meet stepped onto the podium to accept their medals.

Campbell finished in a fifth-place tie in floor exercises with York senior Angela Stangarone.

According to the IHSA website, Campbell is the first member of the Willowbrook girls gymnastics program to earn a top-five finish at the state meet in 29 years. Chrissy Pupelis of the Warriors delivered a fourth-place finish in floor exercises at the 1995 state meet.

Warriors lose post-season opener

Glenbard West overpowers Willowbrook in regional matchup in Glen Ellyn

Willowbrook girls basketball closed out its 2023-24 season with a 67-38 loss to Glenbard West in IHSA Class 4A regional semifinal Glenbard West on Feb. 12. The Warriors finished their season with an overall record of 13-19. Playing on their home court, the Hilltoppers built an 18-8 lead over Willowbrook after one quarter of last week's regional semifinal, which served as the post-season opener for both teams. The Warriors cut Glenbard West's lead to 32-26 by half-time. The Hilltoppers dominated the second half. They outscored Willowbrook 21-8 in the third quarter to take a 53-34 lead with eight minutes to play. The Warriors scored only four points in the final quarter.

Senior Elle Bruschuk closed out her Willowbrook basketball career by scoring a team-high 15 points in last week's loss to Glenbard West. Bruschuk made seven baskets, including one shot from 3-point range, during the game.

Junior Ayaani Gusman contributed seven points for the Warriors in their post-season loss to the Hilltoppers. Senior Kalina Henry added six points. Juniors Loralai McIntyre and Kendall Medinger supplied three points each. Senior Lillian Vish provided two points for Willowbrook, while senior Seyna Fall and sophomore Joely Maciejewski scored one point each.

Glenbard West advanced to the regional final against Geneva on Feb. 15. Geneva beat the Hilltoppers 45-32 to win the regional title and advance to this week's Batavia Sectional. Geneva faced St. Charles North in a sectional semifinal earlier this week. The winner of that contest meets Batavia or St. Charles east in tonight's sectional final.

Senior Elle Bruschuk (No. 33) concluded her Willowbrook basketball career by scoring 15 points in the Feb. 12 contest in Glen Ellyn.

Willowbrook's girls basketball team completed its 2023-24 season with last week's 67-38 loss to Glenbard West in a regional semifinal at the IHSA Class 4A Glenbard West Regional in Glen Ellyn. The Warriors finished their season with an overall record of 13-19. Junior Ayaani Gusman (No. 10) provided seven points for the Warriors. Willowbrook's season ended with a 45-32 loss to Geneva in the regional final on Feb. 15.

Kenny receives 88's Best award for January

SUBMITTED PHOTO Rock Valley Publishing

The 88's Best award recognizes students at Willowbrook and Addison Trail high schools for their achievements in and out of the classroom. Krause praised Kenny during the board meeting, describing her as a quiet, humble and fierce leader. Kenny has been named to Willowbrook's Distinction Honor Roll during each semester of her time in high school. She is an Illinois State Scholar and a member of the National Honor Society, the National English Honor Society, the National Math Honor Society and Willowbrook's social studies honor society—Civitas. Kenny is also one nation's best high school girls volleyball players. During her senior season, she led Willowbrook's girls volleyball team to a third-place finish in the 2023 IHSA Class 4A state tournament in November. The Warriors finished the season with a 40-2 record. Kenny will continue her academic and volleyball careers at Marquette University in Milwaukee. She plans to study physical therapy and/or nutrition.
